Yuparaj Wittayalai School celebrates 100 year anniversary

Nopniwat Krailerg

One of the oldest schools in Chiang Mai, Yuparaj Wittayalai, is celebrating its 100th anniversary. During the celebration, officials hope to raise funds to purchase land beside the school, opposite the Chiang Mun Temple, to construct a 100 years of Yuparaj Wittayalai School memorial building.

The school landscaping and overall environment will also be beautified and the history of Yuparaj Wittayalai will be published — a story of education reforms in the Northern region by academics, historical biographies and qualified alumni. Performances featuring light and color would be organized at the celebrations.

HRH Princess Petcharat Rajsuda supports the celebration and has donated 100,000 baht to the building fund.

Assoc. Prof. Akome Kanchanaprachode, vice-president of the 100th year committees.
